I recently joined The Single Gourmet of South Florida and I just wanted to share with all of you what a wonderful experience I have had with this dynamic singles organization. I have tried many singles organizations and the internet dating scene over the past few years and none has come close to what Single Gourmet has produced for me. I have met more quality people thru this club then any other venue. Because of their efforts I now have plenty of new friends and have met a wonderful lady that is becoming the love of my life. Here is their web site for anyone who might have a interest in this fabulous singles organization. www.SingleGourmetFlorida.com
