Is it rude to listen to music or watch a movie on my iPod while eating dinner alone in a restaurant?

Of course it's not rude! It's not like you're ignoring someone (since no one is there). ROCK ON!!!

I wouldn't, depending on the type of magazine. I think a magazine is a safer bet.

I don't think that's rude at all. It's worse to talk on your cell phone when everyone can hear you. As long as other people can't hear the music, I think it's totally fine!
